MANAGING PARTNER

JEFFREY R. KRINSK

Jeffrey R. Krinsk graduated in 1974 from Boston University Law School in Boston, Massachusetts, and was admitted to active practice in the State of New York on November 17, 1975. As an associate at the New York law firm of Norton & Christenson, he contributed to numerous cases involving intricate violations of federal law and, thereafter, participated in assorted complex litigation against large corporations and particularly the United States Government and/or the Corps of Engineers.

This extensive litigation experience resulted in Mr. Krinsk relocating to California after being asked to join Hang Ten International, Inc. as Staff Counsel and, shortly thereafter, became General Counsel and Chief Legal Officer. Mr. Krinsk was subsequently promoted to Chief Operating Officer and General Counsel for the corporation, overseeing and managing in excess of thirty-five law firms in over sixty countries while fulfilling corporate litigation and transactional needs. In 1983, Mr. Krinsk relocated to Los Angeles, California, after joining Guess?, Inc. as its President, assuming a broad array of related legal and operational responsibilities as its licensing head. Thereafter, Mr. Krinsk was elected Chairman and CEO of publicly-traded Fabulous Inns of America, conducting complex derivative and securities litigation on behalf of its shareholders. This substantial business experience has provided an invaluable perspective in the prosecution of class actions against corporate defendants. Mr. Krinsk has effectively prosecuted and managed a host of class actions for Finkelstein & Krinsk over the last twenty-five years.

ATTORNEYS

DAVID J. HARRIS, JR.

David J. Harris, Jr. joined Finkelstein & Krinsk LLP in 2015 and specializes in securities and consumer class actions. Prior to joining the Firm, Mr. Harris specialized in class action litigation at another leading plaintiffs' firm, primarily representing investors in federal securities fraud cases. Mr. Harris was a member of litigation teams that recovered over $100 million on behalf of aggrieved investors in mortgage-backed securities class actions. He was also part of a trial team that recovered $65 million from a healthcare services company on the eve of trial, in an action alleging securities fraud under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. In addition, Mr. Harris was instrumental in recovering over $10 million for investors in an oil company that allegedly overstated its oil production prospects in its initial public offering.

Mr. Harris was also a member of the appellate team that won a landmark case before the United States Supreme Court in Omnicare, Inc. v. Laborers Dist. Council Construction Industry Pension Fund, 135 S.Ct. 1318 (2015), which shaped securities issuers' disclosure obligations under the Securities Act of 1933. He also served as lead appellate counsel before the California Supreme Court in Heckart v. A-1 Self-Storage, Inc., 4 Cal.5th 749 (2018), which refined the meaning of "insurance" under the California Insurance Code.

Mr. Harris has successfully represented student loan borrowers, credit card borrowers and other aggrieved consumers challenging various forms of unlawful conduct. Such experience primarily includes breaches of contract, economic torts, statutory fraud, and consumer protection cases in federal courts nationwide.

Mr. Harris graduated from the Boston University School of Law in 2012. While in law school, he served as an editor of the Review of Banking & Financial Law, and as a student-attorney in Boston University's Criminal Practice Clinic. Mr. Harris was selected as a Legal Writing Fellow in 2010. Prior to law school, he worked as an operations analyst and project manager for a leading e-discovery services provider. Mr. Harris graduated magna cum laude from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in 2006, with a Bachelor of Science degree in Mathematics, and a concentration in Operations Research.

Mr. Harris is admitted to practice in the State of California and in the United States District Courts for the Northern, Southern, Central, and Eastern Districts of California, and the United States District Courts for the Western District of Wisconsin, and the Central District of Illinois.
